

Subj: poem,"The Crack of Dawn" save this Date: 9/23/2003 4:19:18 PM Central Daylight Time
From: Manolete XXX
To: Megan4Mischief

"The Crack of Dawn"
a poem to make politicians cringe

At one time the crack of Dawn was nearly ,unseemly, gone. but, Little Mining Birds voiced subversive, mouldy, vulgar words as they stroked their miner's lamp in Dawn;s deep, wet vaginal camp. and ate their Campbells Pork and Beans amidst Dawn's vaginal privacy screens. peeking out at clear sky and stars as Prespyterians cruised by in fatass Buick cars yet these little birds kew they all were safe as God's Army's Airplanes dive and strafe shooting Ecclesiastical Tracers and Biblical Soul-Erasers because Mining Birds represent writers and artists and George Carlin and Nightclub Fartists along with Blasphemous Literary Gadflys who pillory those in Senatorial bowties so, if it had not been for Dawn's deep protective Crack, our Freedoms might ne'er come back so, if you hear someone say,"I love The Crack of Dawn" you can be Damn sure which side they're on.

For Our Good Ole Country
[c]Jeff Davies,Sept 24,2003, world rights reserved