"Yours are Much Better"

a bosomatic poem
by J.Davies

Yours are much better
for me to unfetter and see them glow at night.

They give me the Passion which is long out of fashion to play them like Heaven's Violin

They sustain me like Bumpers of a Bosomatic Fire Pumpers that put fire deep in my pants.

I can pet them like Poodles and draw on them with doodles, pf Adlai Stevenson, and ole U.S. Grant

Sgow them to me at Eventide with nippleish great smile-pride and I'll fondle them untill you come.

It wouldn't take Dick Tracy to lift them from a bra ever so lacy and use them as earmuffs 'till dawn

So, please let me suck spherical while I wax lyrical and keep 'em the rest of my Life.
